

litera meat

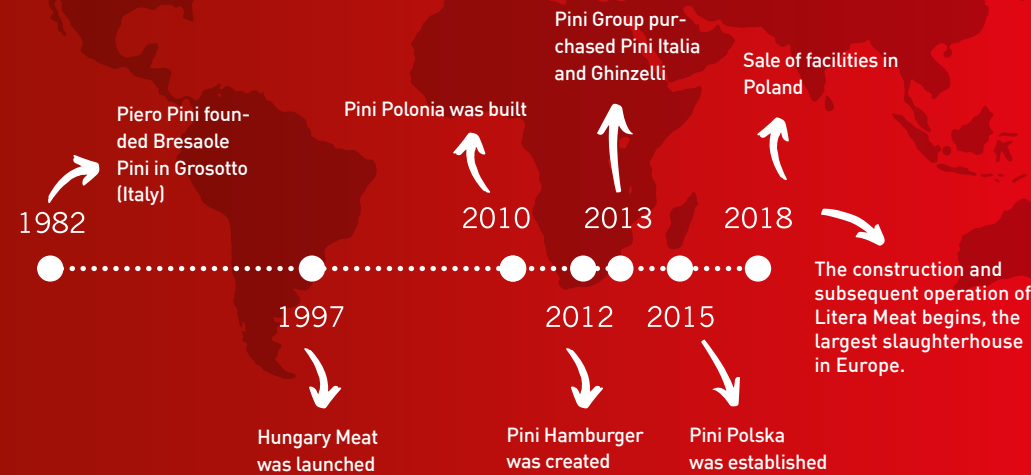

Litera Meat is the largest and newest headquarters of the PINI Group in Binéfar (Huesca) Spain, one of the fastest growing private European group of companies specialized in pork slaughtering, currently processing 6.5 million pigs per year. The sustainable growth of the PINI Group is due to the strong ties of a traditional hardworking Italian family, built upon 3 generations of trust and companionship. The natural outcome of this solid foundation and progress combined with the support of over 5.000 in staff enabled the group to achieve a continuous expansion of slaughterhouse and processing facilities across Europe. Litera Meat is the culmination of 40 years of innovative tradition and the sole largest and most modern pork slaughterhouse cutting plant in Europe.

Litera Meat begins its activity in 2019 and stands out for its Greatness, Innovation and Automation.

We export to more than 70 countries all over the world
